SERVICE OF HEALING

WORDS FOR CONTEMPLATION

"Faith is taking the first step, even when you don't see the whole staircase."

GATHERING THE COMMUNITY OF THE FAITHFUL

PRELUDE

WELCOME

This is the Day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it!

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: We are called here this morning to learn of Christ's healing love.

Many: Help us, O Lord, to learn your lessons of compassion.

One: Every day there are many ways in which we can offer help to others.

Many: Help us, O Lord, to be ready to reach out to all in need.

One: Come, let us worship the One who prepares us for service.

Many: Let us sing our songs of praise to the One who has healed us. Amen.

☒ HYMN

O Christ, the Healer, We Have Come

#638

O Christ, the healer, we have come to pray for health, to plead for friends.
How can we fail to be restored
when reached by love that never ends?

From every ailment flesh endures
our bodies clamor to be freed;
yet in our hearts we would confess that wholeness is our deepest need.

In conflicts that destroy our health
we recognize the world's disease;
our common life declares our ills.
Is there no cure, O Christ, for these?

Grant that we all, made one in faith, in your community may find
the wholeness that, enriching us, shall reach the whole of humankind.

✠ GLORIA PATRI

#734

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. Amen.

A MESSAGE FOR THE YOUNG AND YOUNG AT HEART

HEARING AND PROCLAIMING THE WORD OF GOD

FIRST LESSON

James 1:17-27

Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. In fulfilment of his own purpose he gave us birth by the word of truth, so that we would become a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

You must understand this, my beloved: let everyone be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger; for your anger does not produce God's righteousness. Therefore rid yourselves of all sordidness and rank growth of wickedness, and welcome with meekness the implanted word that has the power to save your souls.

But be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves. For if any are hearers of the word and not doers, they are like those who look at themselves in a mirror; for they look at themselves and, on going away, immediately forget what they were like. But those who look into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and persevere, being not hearers who forget but doers who act—they will be blessed in their doing.

If any think they are religious, and do not bridle their tongues but deceive their hearts, their religion is worthless. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Now when the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him, they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with defiled hands, that is, without washing them. (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not eat unless they thoroughly wash their hands, thus observing the tradition of the elders; and they do not eat anything from the market unless they wash it; and there are also many other traditions that they observe, the washing of cups, pots, and bronze kettles.) So the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, 'Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?' He said to them, 'Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written,

"This people honors me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me;
in vain do they worship me,
teaching human precepts as doctrines."

You abandon the commandment of God and hold to human tradition.'

Then he called the crowd again and said to them, 'Listen to me, all of you, and understand: there is nothing outside a person that by going in can defile, but the things that come out are what defile.'

For it is from within, from the human heart, that evil intentions come: fornication, theft, murder, adultery, avarice, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, envy, slander, pride, folly. All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person.'

HYMN

Meekness and Majesty

#97

Meekness and majesty, human and deity, in perfect harmony, the One who is God.
Lord of eternity, dwells in humanity; kneels in humility and washes our feet.
O what a mystery, meekness and majesty; bow down and worship, for this is your God.

Father's pure radiance, perfect in innocence; yet learns obedience to death on a cross.
Suffering to give us life, conquering through sacrifice; and as they crucify prays, "Father, forgive."
O what a mystery, meekness and majesty; bow down and worship, for this is your God.

Wisdom unsearchable, God, the invisible; love indestructible in frailty appears.
Lord of infinity, stooping so tenderly; lifts our humanity to the heights of his throne.
O what a mystery, meekness and majesty; bow down and worship, for this is your God.

CARES CHORUS

#493

I cast all my cares upon you; I lay all of my burdens down at your feet.
And any time that I don't know what to do, I will cast all my cares upon you.

INVITATION INTO PRAYER (from the Iona Community)

Eternal God,
we praise you
as people have done for near two centuries
within these walls.

We are not alone:
saints and angels, invisible, yet in splendor, surround us;
Jesus, the healer, is with us.

Your Holy Spirit leads us to yearn for our own completeness,
for the well-being of others,
and for a better life.

Fill us with the expectation of goodness;
and should any here feel burdened
by guilt or inadequacy,
let the grace of Jesus
be made real in all its liberating power.

Here let your word come alive in our hearing;
here let our concern respond to your compassion.

Here let hope lead a path through heaviness;
here may your kingdom come.

Amen.

ALTAR CALL - the pastor and deacon's invite all who would like personal prayer for themselves or a loved one to come forward for prayer with the laying on of hands and anointing. Those who are worshipping on line will be invited in to a break out room for prayer.

UNISON PRAYER FOR HEALING

Dear Lord, it is my will to surrender to you everything that I am and everything that I'm striving to be. I open the deepest recesses of my heart and invite Your Holy Spirit to dwell inside of me. I offer you my life, heart, mind, body, soul, and spirit. I surrender to you my past, present, and future problems. I ask You to take hold over every aspect of my life. I surrender to You all my hurt, pain, worry, doubt, fear, and anxiety, and I ask You to wash me clean. I release everything into Your compassionate care.

Please speak to me clearly, Lord. Open my ears to hear Your voice. Open my heart to commune with You more deeply. I want to feel Your loving embrace. Open the doors that need to be opened and close the doors that need to be closed. Please set my feet upon the straight and narrow road that leads to everlasting life. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

SERVICE OF COMMUNION

CALL TO CONFESSION AND ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Loving God, we come before you as we are: broken, disappointed, and suffering in so many ways. Unlike the crowds who surrounded Jesus, urgently turning to him to be made well, we are all too likely to try to heal ourselves. We attempt to fill our emptiness with crowded schedules and with the pursuit of pleasure, prestige and power. We mask our pain instead of facing our fears and loneliness. We confuse what we need with what we want, and we are unwilling to allow you to change our desires to reflect what you want for us. Forgive us, merciful Friend. Forgive our misguided attempts to heal ourselves apart from the transforming grace and power of your love. Strengthen our faith so that we may trust in your healing presence in our lives. Amen.

(Silent prayer of confession)

Gracious God, forgive us, and renew a right spirit within us, a spirit of compassion, understanding, and humility. Fill us with the vision of unity in Christ, and enable us to incarnate Christ's love, so that we may worthily partake in the body of Christ and the cup of the new covenant. Amen.

The good news in Christ is that God is more willing to forgive our sins than we are to acknowledge them. The God of Peace be with you all, keeping you in unity with Christ's people everywhere.

INVITATION ♦ CONSECRATION PRAYER ♦ THE WORDS OF INSTITUTION

SHARING OF THE ELEMENTS      The Bread of Life and the Cup of Salvation

UNISON PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING (IN UNISON)

We bask in the healing power of your love, O God. You are always with us. You are with us when we cry out in fear. You are with us when we are discouraged. You are with us when we are alone. You are with us all the time, day and night. For your presence, we are most thankful. In Jesus' holy name we pray. Amen.

RESPONDING IN LOVE

CALL TO OFFERING

OFFERTORY

Beautiful Savior

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost! Amen.*

⊠ HYMN

There Is a Balm in Gilead

#631

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole,
there is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin-sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged, and think my work's in vain, but then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again.

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole,
there is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin-sick soul.

If you cannot preach like Peter, if you cannot pray like Paul, you can tell the love of Jesus, and say, "He died for all."

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole,
there is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin-sick soul.

Don't ever feel discouraged, for Jesus is your friend, and if you lack for knowledge he'll ne'er refuse to lend.

There is a balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole,
there is a balm in Gilead to heal the sin-sick soul.

BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE

Save me and I'll be saved, for you are my heart's desire.
— Jeremiah 17:14

FROM THE PASTORS PEN

Friends, there are times when I think my grandchildren save me from myself. They require me to be present in the moment and to look at the world with curiosity and wonder. I've been blessed to have time with many of them during my vacation. Each night as I laid my hands upon their heads and prayed for the Lord to bless and keep them I had tears in my eyes. They are each so wonderful in their own ways, bright and funny, curious and determined, loving and caring. I'm blessed, truly blessed.

Holding them in my arms helps to heal my grief. A grief that I forget I'm carrying. I guess grief is like that. Their wonder and hope returns me to the root of my faith, where Jesus beckons me to find awe and joy in the mundane moments of life.

We saw a heron perched in the top of a weeping cherry tree overlooking a pond. It swept down to the water and landed on the bank thirty feet from us with a fish in its mouth. The dog barked and it flew away before we saw it eat the fish. And we saw some really big snapping turtles, and box turtles. And had a Gilmore Girls marathon. Healing comes in the little moments. Thanks be to God.

With blessings of healing love, Katherine

PRAYERS

Prayer

- For the folks impacted by the flooding in CT.

Council Highlights 8/20/24

Members: Ed Reinecker, Susan Hagel, Barry Merrill, Elaine Keough, Jane Johansen; Erika Rinaldi, Leann Barden, Taryn Gillis, Rev Katherine. Not able to attend were Brooke O'Connor, Sally Pantano, Craig Gottmann Hanrahan and Richard Normandin.

Council spent time planning the date and topics for the October Congregational meeting, (October 27, 2024). The warrant is posted and should be in this week's announcements.

Rally Day is coming September 15! We are asking the congregation to bring a dessert or a salad and all other food will be provided. We could use help with purchasing and cooking and games and look forward to the start of a new Sunday School kickoff. Contact a Council member or Taryn if you can help.

Yankee Doodle Homecoming is September 21 and while building construction will not allow us to do a boiled dinner this year, we do need help with the activity our church runs annually. Volunteer for a few hours anytime between 9:30 and 4 pm to help run the booth. We need someone to pick up 3 bales of hay, buy pumpkins and set up and break down the booth. It's a fun activity to help kids of all ages enjoy.

We are looking for two families to volunteer to manage Thanksgiving at our church as Jon and Katherine will not be able to do what they usually do. They have notes and can support your efforts and we need to know soon if we have enough volunteers to be able to pull off this community Thanksgiving event this year...purchasing, peeling, cooking, table set ups, serving and coordinating desserts, and yes, dishes, pots and pans to be washed.

Council also discussed both the 200th anniversary of First Congregational church in Billerica, to be celebrated in 2029 as well as Reverend Katherine's planned retirement during that same year. There will be more discussion about this at the October congregational meeting.

Thanksgiving Day 28th November 2024

We would like to host our annual Thanksgiving Dinner for the community but we need 2 families / groups to step up to manage & host.

All training and information will be provided.

If you would be interested, let Taryn know at communications@fccbillerica.org or on 978-663-8433.
